

May grace be bestowed in abundance
on more and more people

causing THANKSGIVING to overflow
for the glory of God

Happy Thanksgiving!

As many have said before, this year has been like no other. Yet the things that hold us together remain the same.

As we strive to remain connected to those we love over the miles and through social distancing, we all share the hope that life will soon return to a place in which we can share love, support, community, and compassion face-to-face.

In the meantime, we hope you enjoy our Friday email message encouraging you to take 5-10 minutes daily to pray, meditate or connect to your spirit.

At a time of gratitude and thanks, we are grateful for your continuous support of the ministries of the Sisters of St. Joseph and the role they play in building community. May we all do our part to build a better community and realize the most important things for which to give thanks.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family.

Remembering Others

O God, when I have food,
help me to remember the hungry;

When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless;

When I have a home,
help me to remember those who have no home at all;

When I am without pain,
help me to remember
those who suffer,
And remembering,
help me to destroy
my complacency;

Bestir my compassion,
and be concerned
enough to help;

By word and deed,
those who cry out for
what we take for granted.

Join Us in Justice

This year, during a Thanksgiving holiday that certainly is much different than the past, consider donating to a family in need and give back to your community. A financial gift is always helpful to organizations providing food and comfort this Thursday, but this list highlights ways you can help others this holiday season.

DAYS OF PRAYER

This Thursday, on Thanksgiving day, is the 82nd day of the 100 Days of Prayer. Tomorrow take time to say it with your family, pray it with a friend over the phone, or reflect on it before starting your day:

"Today I give thanks to You for my family, friends, health, home and Your abundant blessings. Show me how I can help all people to share in these blessings."
